Mr. William Casey
Director of the Central Intelligence Agency
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Casey,

I am writing you in response to a letter I received from Ms. Sylvia J. Webber, Chief, USAICS Library at Fort Huachuca in Arizona. She suggested that I write the CIA for the information that I am seeking.

I wrote the Librarian in search of a seven volume document, The History of the Military Intelligence Division, which was written between 1957 and 1959. The author of this manuscript was Col. Bruce W. Bidwell. I discovered the existence of this document in researching my grandfather's files. There are several volumes which I have particular interest since they concern my grandfather, Brig. General G. Stanley Smith.

My reasons for wanting to read these documents are that I have no clear ideas of my grandfather's role in the Intelligence Division or of his exploits during his military career.

In the letter from Ms. Webber, it was stated that the document was still classified as Secret and that I would need clearance to view the document. I am now asking for your assistance in pursuing this task. I am hoping that you might point me in the right direction to obtain the clearance that I need.

At this time, I would like to thank you for any assistance that you can give me in helping attain security clearance and/or viewing the document in question.

Sincerely,

George S. Smith II
